Housing and Houselessness across faith communities in East Portland: Dinner, Discussion, and Action. Tuesday, June 20, 6:30-8:30 p.m. Parklane Christian Reformed Church, 16001 SE Main Street.

Dinner and discussion hosted by Parklane Christian Reformed Church and East Portland Neighborhood Office on the ways in which faith communities of East Portland are experiencing and dealing with issues of housing insecurity and houselessness. We will share our experiences, talk about action we are taking or service we are providing, then we will discuss innovative possibilities for the future of local solutions to housing issues for our communities. We are anticipating a relatively casual evening of sharing and sparking interest in collaboration across faiths.

People of all faiths from across East Portland are invited. We are not limiting this to faith leaders, anyone with an interest in the topic may attend.

What to bring: Your friends, family and fellow people of faith. If you would like to bring food, a side or a dessert would be great. Some food will be provided. Please RSVP by Monday, June 12th so we have time to make arrangements.
